FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Stormcloud Brewing Company Releases First “Saizy” Beer

FRANKFORT, MI (July 17, 2019) - Michigan's Stormcloud Brewing Company is celebrating the 50th anniversary of humankind's first trip to the moon with a beer release perfectly suited for intergalactic adventures. Commander X-2 is an innovative Saison-style beer with an Earth-shattering blast of Comet and Galaxy hops, creating a super juicy aroma over a hazy, golden glow.

“If you're a beer drinker who enjoys the current trend of Hazy and Juicy IPAs, you don't want to miss this beer,” says Stormcloud's Beer Education Coordinator Charla Kramer. “Commander X-2 features all the juicy mouthfeel of a Hazy IPA but retains the characteristic dryness of a traditional Saison.”

The super juicy aroma and overall haziness are a result of Stormcloud's brewing staff dry-hopping the beer not once, but twice. “The double dry-hop process using Comet and Galaxy hops really brought out the tropical hop flavor and hazy appearance we were hoping for,” says Stormcloud Head Brewer and Co-Owner Brian Confer. “But don't call it a hazy. It's a Saizy!”

Commander X-2 is now available on tap in Stormcloud's pub and tasting room in Frankfort.

Commander X-2 Specifications:

- Style: Saison / Farmhouse Ale
- ABV: 6.5%
- Bitterness: 45 IBU
- Color (SRM): 4
